" History Of Hamilton County Indiana " by John F. Haines--1915 .

Page 694 : Thomas E. Beals :

The history of the Beals family has been traced back to the seventeenth century, when the first member of the family, John Beals, accompanied William Penn from England to Pennsylvania in 1682. At that time the quakers were being persecuted in England, and in order that they might have more freedom and at the same time bring their children up in new surroundings the family came to America. John Beals settled in Chester County, Pennsylvania and shortly afterwards married Mary Clayton, daughter of William Clayton, who had settled had settled at the same time in Pa. (Note : Wm. Clayton settled at Burlington N. J. in 1677.)John Beals and wife were the parents of three sons, John, William and Jacob.

John Beals, the son of John and Mary (Clayton) Beals, was reared in Chester County, Penna. and was married in 1711, to Sarah Bowater, whoes parents had come from England. (Note : Came in 1685) To this marriage were born seven children, P Prudence the wife of Richard Williams; Sarah the wife of John Milles (Mills); Mary the wife of Thomas Hunt; and after his death married William Baldwin or according to another spelling Ballard(Note several records say it was Wm. Baldwin); Phoebe(Phebe) who married Robert Sumner; John who married Esther Hunt; Bowater, who married Annmyre (Cook), and Thomas who married Sarah Antrim at Monacacy, Maryland September 12,1741.

Thomas Beals, the son of John Beals Jr. moved to near Winchester, Virginia, shortly after his marriage and in 1748 went to Cane Creek North Carolina. (Note: The meeting at Winchester was called the Hopewell Monthly Meeting. In 1749 Thomas and Sarah were at the Carver's Creek Meeting at Council in Bladen County, N. C. which is about twenty miles from Wilmington N. C. In 1751 they went to Cane Creek Meeting at Snow Camp Alamance County N. C. when the Meeting was established.)Sometime later Thomas Beals, with two companions removed to New Garden now, Guilford College, North Carolina, and were the first people to settle at that place. They were soon followed by four brothers-in-law of Thomas Beals, Richard Williams, Thomas Hunt, John Mills, Robert Sumner (in 1754), and John a brother of Thomas. When Thomas Beals was thirty-four years old he became a minister in the Friends Church, and had the honor of founding the quaker church at Guilford. Later he removed to Westfield, Stokes county (Surry County), North Carolina, where he organized a church, and from this place he traveled widely in the interest of his church. He made several visits to what was then known as the Northwest Territory, even going as far north as Fort Wayne Indiana. He took his nephews, Bowater Sumner, William Hiatt and David Ballard, on a missionary visit to the Shawnee and Delawaee Indian tribes, which were then located in the clinch mountains of Virginia. In passing near a fort, unfortunately the British did not appreciate their peaceful mission and arrested them, accusing them of being confererates of the hostile Indiana with whom the British were at war at that time. Just before they were to be put on trial for their lives, Thomas Beals ask permission to talk to the fficers and soldiers in the fort and explain the cause of their visit, and shortly afterwards he preached so powerful a sermon that the Officers allowed him and his party to proceed on their way without trial. A soldier in the fort near the Indian reservation was converted and attached himself to the society of Friends, with which he remained until his old age. Before the missionaries proceeded on their journey the attitude of the soldiers toward them had entirely changed and the officers did everything in their power to speed them on their way.

Thomas Beals and his party then crossed the Ohio river and held many meeting among the Indians in Ohio,and had the satisfaction of feeling that they did much good in softening the hearts of the Savages. Thomas Beals had a prophetic vision that the spiritual truth eventually would be scattered all over that goodly land, and that the greatest gathering of Friends in the world would take place in this country, a prophecy which his descendants have lived to see fulfilled. (Note : Wayne County with 15 and Hamilton County with 12 Friends Meetings top the number of meetings in the U. S. A.) This visit to the Indians in the Northwest was made in the year 1775 and two years later Thomas Beals attempted to make another visit to the same tribe, but was arrested at the point where Pittsburg now stands by the authorities at Fort Duquesne and sent back. Later in the same year he made a second attempt, but was again forced to return home. Although he was permitted to hold a meeting for the soldiers. In 1781 Thomas Beals moved with his family to Blue Stone, Virginia and while living there they suffered greatly from lack of the necessities of life. The Indians captured his son-in-law, James Horton and took him to Old Chillicothe, Ohio, now Frankfort, Ohio, where he was put to death. (Note : There is a very interesting account on this in the Indianapolis Historical library in the microfilmed book, " Chronology Of The Beals Family ") While living at Blue Stone, Virginia Thomas Beals gathered about him some twenty or thirty families of Friends, enough to constitute a Friends Meeting,but this meeting was broke up when he returned to Westfield N. C. (The Yearly Meeting requested that he return.) In 1785 he took his family to Lost Creek, Tennessee and lived in that place for the next eight years. He then removed to Grayson County County, Virginia, where he set up several Meetings of Friends, and did everything in his power to further the interest of his church. (Note : He established Mt. Pleasant Meeting later called Chestnut Meeting where in 1803 Thomas and family and Joseph and family of the Sumner ancestors moved.) In 1799, with his sons, John and Daniel, and his grandson, Abel Thornburg, he moved to Quaker Bottom, now Ross county, Ohio, and there he died August 29,1801, and now lies buried near Richmondale in that county. He was buried in a coffin of regular shape hewn out ofthe solid white walnut tree which had been selected by him for that purpose before his death. The coffin was prepared by his ever faithful friend Jessie Ballard, assisted by Enoch Cox and others.

In the autumn of 1802 Sarah Beals, the widow of Thomas, with her sons, John and Daniel and their families, moved to Lee's Creek in Highland County, Ohio where she eventually died, on July 7, 1813 at the advanced age of 89 years. She was buried at Fairfield Ohio. To Thomas and Sarah(Antrim) Beals were Born five sons and eight daughters as follows : Mary b-6/15/1742, Mary and Sarah twins b-8/30/1743,Mary became wife of Thomas Jessup; Thomas b-10/29/1745; Patience,b-12/9/1747; William b-6/13/1750; Daniel b-2/15/1753; Elizabeth b-4/25/1755; Margret b-10/12/1757; Hannah b-12/13/1759; Rachel and John twins b-3/9/1763 and Jacob b- 10/28/1768.

Many of the most prominent ministers of the quaker church have descended from Thomas and Sarah Beals. (Note : See whole page of those who are listed in " Chronology Of The Beals Family ".) In remembrance and recognition of these pious people the Indiana Yearly Meeting of Friends at Richmond Indiana in 1868 and 1870 ordered an appropriation made and had a stone wall built around the grave of Thomas Beals. There are still some people living who remember this great missionary, one of these being Levi Coffin, the venerable philanthropist, who was a blood descendant of the Beals family.

John Beals the son of Thomas was born March 9,1763 and was the great-grandfather of Thomas Elwood Beals the present representative of the family living in Noblesville. He was a brick maker as well as a wheelwright, miller and general mechanic, and was skilled in each trade. He was married in 1788 to Mary

Carter who was born in North Carolina not far from Westfield and he accompanied his father to Lost Creek Tenn. and from there to Grayson County, Virginia. At the latter place his wife died 10/11/1799. In the later part of the same year John Beals accompanied the other members of the family to Quaker Bottom, Ross county Ohio, crossing the Ohio river on Christmas Day 1799. The second wife of John Beals was Mary Johnson Hiatt, the widow of his cousin William Hiatt. Later John Beals and his family accompanied his widowed motherv to Lee's Creek, Highland Co., Ohio and there John, assisted by his son, Thomas made brick and built the quaker meeting house at Fairfield Ohio. (Note : This brick church is standing in 1963 near by the cemetery near Leesburg, Ohio) In 1834 he moved to Hamilton County Indiana and settled one mile west and a half south of Deming in section 7 Jackson township. Here he entered between 300 and 400 acres of land in the woods, building a log cabin for his first home. He also built a rude grist mill,which at time was called a corn cracker. He fashioned the grindstone himself out of a granite boulder and these same stones are now used as a doorsteps by his grandaughter, Candice Beals Barker. John Beals was one of the first Friends to settle in this county and became one of the first founders of the Friends chucch at Westfield and always took an active interest in the church. He died on the farm which he had entered August 5, 1848, his second wife having died 1846. To the first marriage of John Beals were : Nathan C. Beals born September 3, 1789 at Lost Creek Tenn.(Near New Market) and married on November 11,1820 to Elizabeth Chew; Thomas born 2/14/1791 at Lost Creek,Tenn,married Nancy Stanley, died in Hamilton County, Indiana; Abner born 3/6/1795 in Grayson County, Virginia, died in Virginia 7/6/1796; Amy born 4/24/1797, died 12/4/1892 in Hardin County,Ohio at advanced age of 95 years. She was the wife of Joseph Thompson; Daniel born 3/25/1799 in Grayson County, Virginia, married first a Miss Hadley and after her death Elizabeth Bray and died in Lynn County, Missouri.

(Note : Also the children by his second wife Mary Johnson Hiatt , widow of William Hiatt were : Jesse b-10/1/1804 Highland Co., Ohio, died same place 12/23/1885; Esther b-8/10/1807, Highland Co., Ohio, died West Grove, Hamilton County, Indiana where she was " Recorded Minister of the Friends Church " , married Jacob Carson 9/10/1829 in Highland Co., Ohio Jacob having been born in Stokes Co. N. C. and also died at West Grove 10/29/1886 ; Mary Beals born 5/6/1806 in Highland County Ohio, died 3/4/1876 at Westfield, Hamilton County, Indiana and married Ephraim Stout born 1/14/1797 at Guilford County, N. C. son of Charles and Lydia Stout. He was buried at Westfield Friends cemetery.)

At the time John Beals settled in this county in 1834 there were still Indians roaming in the forest, althoughmost of them had been taken to reservations west of the mississippi. In this connection it is recorded in the Old Beals family Bible interesting story concerning the Indians and John Beals was chased by a party of Indians and sought shelter in a high stump of a hollow tree, and was followedinto the tree by two small cub bears. The Indians came up and rapped on the tree but did not climb up to investigate the aperture where he crawled in. After staying around the tree for a while they went away but he remained there until after dark before he crawled out and started home. However as he crawled out the old she-bear returned ~~there~~ to the hollow tree which was her den, and came down into the hole backwards. He seized her short tail and held on so desperatly that the bear climbed up inside of the tree with John still holding fast to her tail, and finally scrambled to the ground when she went one way and he the other.
